

The Knowledge Bank at The Ohio State University
Ohio State Engineer

Title: Alumni News

Issue Date: Apr-1933

Publisher: Ohio State University, College of Engineering

Citation: Ohio State Engineer, vol. 16, no. 5 (April, 1933), 22-23.

URI: <http://hdl.handle.net/1811/35018>

Appears in Collections: Ohio State Engineer: Volume 16, no. 5 \(April, 1933\)

Alumni News

1926

E. H. Markel was a caller on the campus recently. He is working for the Ohio Inspection Bureau and has headquarters at Dayton, Ohio.

F. R. Jones was a caller on the campus in November. He finished his engagement with the Mahoning Valley Sanitary District and may now be addressed at 2205 West 11th St., Ashtabula, Ohio.

R. T. Needels may be addressed at 244 W. Third Ave., Columbus, Ohio.

N. G. Fasnacht was a recent caller on the campus. He has just completed his engagement with the Mahoning Valley Sanitary District and may be addressed at 622 Almyra Ave., Cleveland, Ohio.

Mr. J. Gavin Callinan, who received his B.Ch.E. degree in 1926 from the Chemical Engineering Department, the Ohio State University, has been loaned to The Sheet Glass, Ltd., of Queenborough, Kent, England, by his firm, for one year.

1927

R. E. Bishop is chief engineer for Dayton Structural Steel Company, Dayton, Ohio.

1928

Clarence Beachan, '28, was doing some exploratory work in the oil fields during the summer. He was located near Del Rio, Texas.

1929

Gordon Walker is a graduate student in the College of Engineering, Ohio State University.

Roy Staack has been appointed Resident Engineer of Hancock County with headquarters at Findlay, Ohio.

O. N. Essex is assistant engineer in charge of highway work at Carey, Ohio. He may be addressed in care of the County Surveyor's office at Upper Sandusky, Ohio.

Francis Steele is representing the Fluid Pack Pump Co. at Houston, Texas.

Elmer E. Buell was a caller at Brown Hall recently. He is on engineering work with the War Department at Washington, D. C.

Gordon H. Walker has been with the Wallace & Tierman Co. until the middle of October. He gives his address at 1051 Shoreham Building, Washington, D. C.

Loy L. Sammer has left the employ of the American Telephone and Telegraph and is taking a special graduate course in advanced structures in the University. His home address is 30 E. Patterson Ave., Columbus, Ohio.

C. W. Allen has left the employ of the American Telephone and Telegraph and is working for the Materials Testing Division of the State Highway Department with headquarters in the Engineering Experiment Station building on the campus.

Frank B. Conlon, E.E., '29, is at present working for Gibbs and Hill, Inc., contractors for the New York end of the Pennsylvania Railroad electrification in the substation construction force. He may be addressed at 31 Washington Street, Rahway, N. Y.

W. B. Jordan, B. Engr. Phys., is with the Aircraft & Marine Engineering Department of the General Electric Company, Schenectady, N. Y. In June, 1932, Mr. Jordan completed the three-year Advanced Course in Engineering, conducted by the General Electric Company.

1930

Emmett H. Karrer has been transferred from Knoxville, Tenn., to Montgomery, Alabama. He is with the Bureau of Public Roads and may be addressed in the care of the Division of Management of that Bureau, Washington, D. C.

S. T. Carpenter has just completed the construction of a new municipal power plant at Stryker, Ohio. He also drew the plans for the plant and supervised the construction. He may be addressed at 407 E. Main St., Montpelier, Ohio.

R. H. N. Murray may be addressed 41-07 47th Avenue Long Island City, New York, according to a recent letter from him.

Glen Hurd, B.M.E., 1930, is with the Air Conditioning Department of the General Electric Company, Schenectady, N. Y.

W. F. R. Karsten is with the Testing Department of the General Electric Company, Schenectady, N. Y. In June, 1932, Mr. Karsten completed one year of the Advanced Course in Engineering, conducted by the General Electric Company.

Mr. Kent M. Sprinkel, who received his Bachelor of Chemical Engineering degree in 1930 from the Chemical Engineering Department, the Ohio State University, has accepted a position with the Hilton-Davis Company, located at Cincinnati, Ohio. Mr. Sprinkel will begin research work on varnishes, about September 19th.

1931

John R. Morris was a caller at Brown Hall in October. He is a junior engineer in the War Department with headquarters at Huntington, W. Va.

Mark Allen has resumed work with the War Department with headquarters at Huntington, W. Va., and is temporarily assigned to work at Marietta, Ohio.

A. G. Olmsted has been engaged since graduation on work with the Army Engineers and may be addressed in care of the Huntington, W. Va., office, Corps of Engineers, U. S. A.

R. E. Speer, who is with the United Natural Gas Co. of Oil City, Pa., was a recent visitor on the campus.

Roy J. Black, B.E.E., was recently transferred from the Testing Department of the General Electric Company in Schenectady, N. Y., to the Schwerin Air Conditioning Company, 101 Park Avenue, New York, distributors of G. E. air conditioning equipment.

W. G. Knasel is working for the State Highway Department out of the Sidney, Ohio, office.

O. W. Gruebmeier is working for the State Highway Department out of the Sidney office.

Raymond Wyer, I.E. '31, is Assistant to the General Manager of the Lake Placid Club, Lake Placid, N. Y.

R. B. Hindman is inspector of bituminous road materials for the State Highway Department, being assigned to various locations of the headquarters office in charge of Mr. R. R. Litehiser located in the Engineering Experiment Station building on the campus.

Floyd C. Redick, w'31, is working for the State Highway Department as inspector on the Westerville Road.

Irvin T. Fenneman died June 15, 1932, at Lima, Ohio. He was outstanding on the campus in military affairs.

J. H. Humberstone, B. Met. E., was a recent visitor on the campus. He is employed by the General Electric Co. of Schenectady, N. Y., as research metallurgist. Humberstone has been working on welding problems. He has been very successful in this field, having taken out several patents on welding rods.

L. J. Rautio, B. Met. E., stopped at Lord Hall with his wife on October 15. Rautio is on the metallurgical staff of the American Rolling Mill Co. at Ashland, Ky. He reports that Gerald Downey, B. Met. E., who is also employed at the Ashland plant of the American Rolling Mill Co., was recently married.

1932

Paul Matthews has been on revetment work for the U. S. Government at Crystal City, Mo.

Samuel C. Pritchard began work in the State Highway Department at Columbus, Ohio, as the result of a civil service examination taken by him last March. He lives at 200 East Oakland Avenue, Columbus, Ohio.

Horace W. Ark has been working on his father's farm during the summer and may be reached at R.F.D. No. 8, Springfield, Ohio.

L. H. Herschler finished his temporary assignment on the Mississippi River work and may be addressed at 517 W. 6th Ave., Columbus, Ohio.

Publishes Book

The last issue of the Technical news bulletin of the national Bureau of Standards announces a publication by H. B. Brooks, E.E., '03. Dr. Brooks is associated with the Bureau of Standards and is chief of the electrical instrument section. His publication is entitled "Les Potentionmetres, Congres International d'Electricite." Dr. Brooks has been sent to Europe several times in connection with International standardization work of the Bureau. Donald Brooks, his son, graduated recently in Chemical Engineering.

Mothers' Day Flowers

INDIANOLA FLORISTS

Seventeenth Avenue

GREENHOUSES ONE SQUARE EAST OF FOURTH

POMERENE CAFETERIA

Campus 282

STONEMAN PRESS

Printers

EXPERIENCE CAPACITY SERVICE

Printers of the Ohio State Engineer